

Your Will is the last statement you will ever make.

You want it to be a meaningful one!

The inheritance you leave to your children is about more than the monetary assets of your estate. It is about their best interests and the values you want to pass on.

- What will be the spiritual inheritance you leave?
- Do you have a Will that adequately reflects your heart and properly prepares the next steward?
- Will your legacy of giving extend beyond your own life?

Manage God's Assets*

Did you know?

- › Billions of dollars are needlessly being transferred to the government through capital gain and income taxes
- › Only 10% of Canadians give to charity through their Wills
- › 58% of Canadians do not have a current Will
- › Often current estate documents overlook the tax advantages of charitable giving

Why should you create an estate plan with our specialists?

- › To reduce taxes and fees at death.
- › To integrate a biblical worldview into your plan.
- › To prepare the next generation of stewards.
- › Your plan will reflect your heart and your values.
- › Your plan will promote family harmony and avoid conflict over family assets, heirlooms and expectations.

Working with the estate specialists at ADVISORS with Purpose...

...will answer questions about your estate and help you to align your wishes with God's purposes. Questions like:

- › How much is enough for me?
- › How much is enough for my family?
- › How much is enough for charity?

Will the Legacy you Leave Reflect the Life you Lived?

"We were able to give far more than we could have imagined to God's Kingdom and this has brought us great joy and satisfaction knowing that those ministries close to our heart will continue to benefit after we have gone."

Estate planning is for everyone, regardless of whether you have a lot or a little. The benefits go beyond your family to the charities and ministries dear to your heart. And the peace of mind, knowing that the legacy of your life will be rooted in the values of eternity is priceless.
